

DOMINICAN COLLEGE PORTSTEWART

Dominican College Portstewart is a Catholic Co-Educational Voluntary Grammar School catering for 600 11-18 year old pupils. It is unique amongst Catholic Grammar Schools in N. Ireland in that it attracts significant numbers of students from other Christian denominations. Its students come not only from Portstewart but also from a range of towns and villages stretching up to twenty miles away.

The school has entered a period of expansion due to the closure of St Joseph's College in Coleraine and will, over the course of the next two years, become a non-selective, all ability Grammar School. There is a fortnightly timetable with 5 classes per day except for 2 days which have 6 classes. All teachers are expected to contribute to and participate in the communal and extra-curricular life of the school.
